About the Organisation

The Asian Forum for Human Rights and Development (FORUM-ASIA) is membership-based regional human rights organisation founded in 1991 with the mission to promote and protect all human rights, including the right to development, through collaboration and cooperation between human rights defenders and organisations in Asia.

At present, it has 47 member organisations across 16 countries in Asia working on a wide range of issues related to human rights, democracy, and development in their respective countries. Its regional Secretariat is located in Bangkok, Thailand and has offices in Jakarta, Geneva, and Kathmandu.

FORUM-ASIA is committed to building a peaceful, just, equitable and ecologically sustainable community of peoples and societies in Asia where all human rights of all individuals, groups and peoples—in particular, the poor, marginalised and discriminated people—are fully respected and realised in accordance with internationally accepted human rights norms and standards. It advocates human rights issues through engagement with governments, inter-governmental organisations and the United Nations for the better promotion and protection of all human rights.

FORUM-ASIA has special consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).

Duties and Responsibilities

Under the overall guidance of the Country Programme Manager, the NHRI Advocacy Programme Officer will assist the Country Programme Manager in overseeing the implementation of Organisational Strategic Action Plan, in particular NHRI related programmes/projects.    b. Draft programme related concept notes and proposals as required.
3. Programme Implementation
   a. Be responsible for the implementation and coordination of the programme(s) and project(s) under his/her responsibility, including the organising and coordination of the Asian NGO Network of National Human Rights Institutions (ANNI), membership development, capacity building, and networking/coalition building;
   b. Monitor regularly the performance of NHRIs and respond to human rights issues that concern NHRIs whenever necessary;
   c. Coordinate regularly with other staff within the programme and with other programmes in relation to human rights issues that concern NHRIs;
   d. Communicate with FORUM-ASIA and ANNI members and partner organisations and respond to their requests;
   e. Organise forums, trainings, meetings in cooperation with other programmes concerned;
   f. Organise fact-finding or advocacy missions whenever necessary; and,
   g. Draft public statements, press releases and commentaries and/or articles for FORUM-ASIA publications and other media on issues related to the programme.

4. Monitoring, Evaluation and Reporting
   a. Assist in the overall monitoring and evaluation of organisational plans and budget according to the Annual Work-Plan and Budget; and
   b. Participate in team evaluations and follow-ups, as well as self-evaluations.
   c. Assist the Country Programme Manager in preparing periodic progress reports: monthly, quarterly, half yearly and annually, as required, in a results-based management framework; and
   d. Produce mission reports, including finance clearance after each mission.

5. Participation and Representation
   a. Represent the Secretariat in relevant meetings, forums, platforms, and processes that concern NHRIs both at regional and international levels.

6. Other Tasks
   a. Implement other relevant tasks and activities as assigned by the Country Programme Manager.

Basic Qualifications and Criteria
