About the Organisation

The Asian Forum for Human Rights and Development (FORUM-ASIA) is a membership-based regional human rights organisation founded in 1991 with the mission to promote and protect all human rights, including the right to development, through collaboration and cooperation between human rights defenders and organisations in Asia.

At present, it has 58 member organisations across 19 countries in Asia working on a wide range of issues related to human rights, democracy, and development in their respective countries. Its regional Secretariat is located in Bangkok, Thailand, and has offices in Jakarta, Geneva, and Kathmandu.

FORUM-ASIA is committed to building a peaceful, just, equitable and ecologically sustainable community of peoples and societies in Asia where all human rights of all individuals, groups and peoples—in particular, the poor, marginalised and discriminated peoples—are fully respected and realised in accordance with internationally accepted human rights norms and standards. It advocates human rights issues through engagement with governments, inter-governmental organisations and the United Nations for the better promotion and protection of all human rights.

FORUM-ASIA has special consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).

About the work of the Senior Management Team

The Senior Management Team (SMT) is a collective leadership model responsible for the oversight of the FORUM-ASIA Secretariat and the programmes of FORUM-ASIA in line with its Statutes, By-Laws, and other policies including its Gender Policy, Environment Impact Policy as well as the Staff Rules and Regulations (SRR), Financial Rules and Regulations (FRR) and decisions of the Executive Committee (EC) and the General Assembly.

Duties and Responsibilities

Reporting to the Executive Director (ED), the Programme Officer New Initiatives and Partnership Development will support the development of new projects and initiatives for FORUM-ASIA. The Programme Officer will work closely with the SMT to:

1. support the ED and Directors in implementing the new strategy of FORUM-ASIA, particularly in relation to new initiatives and new areas of work;
2. develop regional and international capacity building programmes;
3. develop projects for young people and the new generation of Human Rights defenders
4. support the building of a knowledge network in partnership with universities, research institutions and Think Tanks on Human Rights issues;
5. initiate and support new work in the field of Human Rights and Development (focus on SDGs), Human Rights and Business etc.;
6. provide strategy support for South-South initiatives and for the development of strategic partnerships at the global level;
7. support the SMT in resource mobilisation and donor relations;
8. support the ED in communication and coordination with all stakeholders;
9. Offer overall support to the Executive Director and SMT in terms of strategy, advocacy and initiatives of FORUM-ASIA.
